REPUBLICAN CLUBS GREETING HARRISON.

HIS ADDRESS TO A DELEGATION FROM EDGAR COUNTY-WITNESSING A GAME OF BASEBALL.

THY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUND. Indianapolis, July 25 .- sixteen car-loads of people came over from Edgar County, Itl., to-day to call upon General Harrison. A special train was chartered for the trip, and it was decked out to suit the fancy of the visitors. All of the cars were draped with the National colors, and one, representative of the agricultural interests, was ornamented with sheaves of grain. The most notable feature of the train, however, was a flat car on which was mounted a log cabin. High above the cabin was a pole to which was attached a hard-cider barrel, on which complacently sat two raccoons. Projecting from the rear end of the cabin was a swivel gun, which becomed for Harrison repeatdly all along the line, awakening the cohoes in the small towns and stirring up commotion everywhere. The cabin was the proud work of the veterans of 1840 who voted for Old Tippecanoe. One hundred of them accompanied the delegation, and were given a special reception by the local Tippecanoe Club in the Indianapolis Court House, where addresses were delivered recalling incidents in the campaign which resulted in a glorious victory for the grandfather of General Har-

The excursion was under the auspices of the John A. Logan Club, of Parts, Ill., which invited other clubs of the county to participate. The invitation was accepted, not only by the club members but by all of their wives, sweethearts and cailing acquaintanees. The organizations that were represented in the march through the streets immediately after the train's arrival at 10:30 o'clock were twelve in number, including, besides the Tippecanoe veterans, three negro clubs The crowd was so large that it was deemed advisable to hold an out-door meeting, and at 2 o'clock over 2,000 people assembled under the tre of University Park, a block distant from the hotel, where other delegations have been received. General Harrison was escorted to a temporary platform erected for the occasion, and upon appearing before the crowd was addressed by George E. Bacon, who represents Edgar County in the Illinois Senate. In reply Generai Harrison said:

Senator Bacon and my Illinois friends: Some of my home friends have been concerred lest I should be ween out by the frequent coming of these deseguious. I am satisfied from what I see before me to-day that the rest of Illinois is here (laughter), and the concern of my friends till no longer be excited by the coming of Illinois delegations. (A voice "We are all here.") That you should eve the pursuits of your daily hie, the farm, the and the shop, to make this journey gives me the most satisfactory evidence that your hearts are enlisted in this (A voice: " Oh, you dene that in '61.")

I am glad to welcome here to-day the John A. Logan You have chesen a name that you will not need to drop, whatever mutations may come in politics, so ong as there shall be a party devoted to the flag and to the Constitution, and pledged to preserve the memories of the great deeds of those who died that the Constitutio toight be preserved and the flag hedored. (Appliause John A. Legan was indeed, as your spokesman has said, "the typical volunteer soulier." With him loyalty was not a sentiment; it was a passion that possessed his whole nature. When the Civil War broke out no one did more than he to solidify the North in helence of the Gov-ernment. He it was who said that all parties and all platforms must be subordinate to the defence of the Gov-ermment against unprovoked asseult. (A voice: "That's just what he said.") In the war with Mexico, as a member of the lat Illinois Regiment, and afterward as the commander of the 31st Illinois, in the Civil War, he gave spicuous example of what an untrained citizen could do in the time of public peril. In the early fight at Donelson, he, with the First Illineis Brigade, successfully resisted the desperate assaults that were made upon his line. Twice wounded, he yet refused to leave the field. courage of that gallant brigade called forth from a Massachusetts poet the familiar lines:

" Thy proudest mother's eyelfds fill As darcs her gailant bey ; And Plymouth Rock and Bunker Hill, Yearn to thee, Illinois."

He commanded successively brigades, divisions, corps and strains and fought them with un arrying success.

I greet thee, veterans of the campaign of 1850. You recall the pleaser days, the log-cabin days of the West. the days when muddy highways were the only avenues of travel and commerce. You have seen a marvellous development. The State of your adoption has become a mighty commonwealth. You have seen it crossed and recrossed by railreads, bringing all your farms late easy comnumeration with distant markets. You have seen the schoolhouse and church prought into every neighb you have seen it emerge from that dreadful trial and enter again upon an era .: presperity that seems to surpass all

To these young men who will for the first time this year take part as citizens in describining a Presidential election, I suggest that you have become members of 2 party of precious memories. There has been nothing in the history of the Republican party, nothing in the plat-form of principles that it has preciaimed, that is not calto stir the high impulses of your young hearts. as set before it ever the maintenance of the Union, the honor of the flag and the prosperity of our people. has been an American party (great cheering) in that it has set American interests always to the front.

My friends of the colored organization, I greet you as cans to-day. I recall the time when you were of our institutions of learning were closed against you, and even almittance to many of our Northern States was de-nied you. You have read the story of your distrinchiserestoration to you of the common rights o eted opposition that every statute and constitution amendment framed for your beneat encountered. What party befriended you when you needed friends. What has stood always as an obstruction to the development and enlargement of your rights as citizens? When you have studied these questions well, you will be able determine not only where your gratitude is due, but where the hopes of your race lie. (Applause and cries of General Harrison, accompanied by Judge Woods, of the United States District Court, E. R. Martindale and Harry S. New, went out to the baseball rork to witness the League championship game between the Chicago and Indianapolis clubs. It was the first game of baseball that he has ever attended in Indianapolis. It was upon the assurances of rare enjoyment that the enthusiasts who accompanied him induced him to go. He occupied a private box, but when his presence was discovered the spectators gave him a rousing reception, and repeatedly during the afternoon, particularly when good plays were made by the home club, gave hearty cheers for the Republican ticket, while every now and then some one would ery out: What's the matter with Harrison ?" to which would be given the roaring response: "He's all right." At the conclusion of the game, General Harrison was taken by his escort down to the home team's club-house, where he was introduced to each of the players, with whom he shook hands.

WILLIAM H. BARNUM ON A STILL HUNT.

Washington, July 25 (Special).-William H. Barnum spent to-day in Washington and was among the anxious inquirers who sought information respecting Mr. Randail's condition. "Baron" Scott is confined to his house by a slight illness, and that was given as a reason for Mr. Barnum's visit. Mr. Barntim spent several hours at the Capitol in conference with Western Democrats, which gave some countenance to the rumor of a contemplated "still hunt" by the Demo-erats, inspired by a hope that they may hag the elec-toral votes of Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota.

PLEVATED RAILWAY MEN ENTHUSIASTIC. The first public meeting of the Manhattan Railway Employes' Harrison and Morton Club was held last evening at No. 206 East Eighty-stath-st. Over one bundred names were added to the roll of the organization during the ovening, bringing the whole number up to about 350. C. K. Ford, of the Second-ave, line, was elected fourth vice-president and George Hufman was elected marshal of the clut, which will join in the reception of Mr. Biaine. Charles Smith then read a poem which had been written for the occasion. He was followed by C. A. Smith, who congratulated the club on its prospects and then proceeded with an able argument on the leading issues of the cam-paigu. James S. Lehmaier, secretary of the State League of Republican Clubs, said that never before had the party been so thoroughly organized in the State and that all present indications pointed to the success of the party this fall. The meeting was extremely enthusiastic and the speakers were frequently interrupted by appliause

DEMOCRATS WILL TRY A LOW TRICK. A little scheme has just been devised by the Democratic managers to injure General Harrison on the Pacific Coast. They propose to dress a lot of loafers up as Chinamen and have them parade here in honor of the Republican candidate. The procession will be photographed and copies sent all over the Western States and the Pacific Slope. This is a good example of what Mr. Brice calls "The contest of ideas."

WEST SIDE CLUBS ORGANIZING. THE MEMBERSHIP RAPIDLY INCREASING-MEN

PROMINENT IN THE MOVEMENT. The work of organizing Republican Clubs on the upper west side of the city, and adding to their membership, is being prosecuted with vigor. Already there are nearly a dozen clubs between Fifty-secondst. and Spuyten Duyvil and west of Seventh-ave. This is the XIXth Assembly District. eight and three-quarter miles in length, and in point of population is rapidly rivaling the XXIIId Assembly District, with its 20,000 voters. The pioneer of the Republican clubs on the upper West Side is the West Side Republican Club. It is really the reorgan-ized Garfield Club of the XIXth Assembly District, It is really the reorganwhose headquarters were in Seventh-ave, near Fiftyfourth-st., but with a largely increased membership. It now has nearly 300 members. The club-house is a three-stery brownstone front house, No. 165 West

Seventy-first-st. Recently William H. Bellamy, secretary of the Republican County Committee, John Reisenweber, and other active members of the West Side Republican Club sent out a circular inviting representatives of the various campaign clubs to meet in the club's headquarters to discuss campaign work. Reprecentatives from eight or nine organizations attended. Among these was General Denis F. Burke, who has organized a club composed of about 200 Irish-Americans many of whom have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket, but are now disgusted with the course of the Democratic leaders in advocating free trade. It was conceded at the outset that it would be useless to have only one great organization in a district nearly nine miles long. It was deemed the plan to divide the district into sections and let each This would insure club work a particular one. T

The Assembly District is growing faster in population than any other in the city and a large percentage of the new voters are Republicans. The vote in Harrison and Morton in November will be much greater than has ever been cast for a Republican andidate in this district.

The campaign was practically opened. Nearly all the party did not have a clear idea of what So Mrs. Lockwood came from Washington to take the helm. Mrs. Lockwood explained the wicked and expensive methods of the old parties, and then the wor mediately held a caucus, a secret conference, to decide on the electoral candidates. Mrs. Lockwood ran the caucus, acted as sergeant-at-arms, and conveyed all innation to a reporter who sat in the hall. Here are a few things she said: "When man ruled supreme it was a civilization of force. Now we are passing fate a new civilization, in which woman shall share with men in equal rights. OPPOSING THE MILLS BILL IN PLATTSBURG. Plattsburg, July 25 (Special).-The young men of Northern New-York are profoundly interested in the present political campaign, as the Mills bill strikes at the leading industry of their region, namely, the manufacture of iron. To-night the young Republi-cans of Platisburg connected with the Harrison and Morton Club and the Young Men's Republican Club Morton Ulib and the Young Men's Republican Club held a large mass-meeting. It was expected that ex-Senator Warner Miller would make the speech of District that Mr.Purroy represented. This is composed of ten of the thirty-nine districts of that Assembly District. the evening, but he decided at the last moment that he would make no address, inasmuch as he had ac cepted an invitation to make a speech before the Clinton County Agricultural Society on August 20 James P. Foster, of New-York, president of the National Republican League, addressed the large audience which assembled Charles H. Moore, president of the local Lengue club, presided. Mr. Foster in his speech eulogized Gen-eral Harrison and the Republican platform. He said that all over the State there was an uprising of workingmen and manufacturers to support Harrison and Morton. In Eric County a Harrison Club, composed of 800 men who voted for Cleveland in 1854, had been formed. Ex-Senator Miller and Mr. Foster will cross Lake Champlain to Eurlington, Vt., to-morrow, and there will make tariff speeches before the League clubs of Vermont. Senator Edmunds and Congress-man Butterworth of Ohlo, will also make speeches. The attendance at the Eurlington meeting promises to number many thousands of people.

THE NEGRO LESS OFNOXIOUS TO BOURBONS. Richmond, July 25 (Special).-It has just leaked out here that the Bourbon party is trying to break the color line for its own benefit in a secret way. Last week W. R. Trigg, president of the Electrical Railway Line, issued invitations to a banquet to five prominent colored men of this city. There were also present Colonel N. V. Randolph, W. R. Meredith, prominent Democrats of Richmond, and Maurice It. Flynn, of New-York, the owner of the Richmond city railways, and others. Whites and blacks sat at the same table, ate and drank, and were merry together. Randolph and Meredith are representatives of the Richmond aristocracy, and the people are such stirred up over the matter. The impression is that it is a bold step toward getting the colored people to vote the Cleveland ticket this fall, and a bid for assistance through the agency of Flynn's large in this city.

INSURANCE MEN SOLID FOR HARRISON. A score or more of the representative insurance men of Brooklyn met yesterday afternoon at No. 181 Montague-st., to take steps for the organization of an Insurance Men's Harrison and Morton Club. It was stated that nine-tenths of the insurance men in Brooklyn are heartily supporting the Republican ticket. The enrolment of 110 names in advance of organization was reported. Robert B. Sedgwick was made temporary chairman, and the following committee was appointed to form the permanent organization and name officers: P. H. Flynn, Albert Hodges, J. A. De Groot, A. B. Thorn, and Alexander Ray. details of the work to make the organization as effective as possible and to enable it to participate in the paragraph of Mr. Blaine's arrival in this country were discussed. Another meeting will be held to-morrow at 5 p. m., to perfect the organization.

READY FOR THE LOCAL CAMPAIGN. THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE INDORSES

THE PRIMARIES. There was a large attendance at the special meeting of the Republican County Committee in Grand Opera House Hall last evening. Prominent among those present were Colonel S. V. R. Cruger, A. R. Whitney, ex-Judge S. Burdett Hyatt, Clarence Meade, John P. Windolph, Henry Clinton Backus, James W. Perry, Coroners Nugent and Eldman, Dr. Gilbert, Jeremiah Pangborn, J. Thomas Stearns, Will-

Chairman Cruger presided. The call for the holding of primaries was read by Secretary Bellamy and provides that the Republican voters enrolled in the several Assembly Districts of the city meet at the places designated on August 16 to elect delegates and alternates to the State Convention to be held at Saratoga on August 28. In the XXIVth Assembly District the Convention will be held at Hohmann's Hall, Cortlandt-ave., near One-hundred-and-fiftieth-st., on Friday, August 17, at 8 p. m. The apportionment in that district will be as follows: Twenty-third Ward twenty-nine delegates; Twenty-fourth Ward, seven delegates, and Kingsbridge, three delegates. apportionment for the other districts will be as follows; Ist District, three delegates; Hd, three; HId. four; IVth, three; Vth, four; VIth, four; VIIth, six; VIIIth, six; IXth, six; Xth, five; XIth, five; XIth, four; XIIIth, six; XYVth, three; XVth, five; XVIth, four; XVIIth, six; XVIIIth, four; XIXth, six; XXth, four; XXIst, five; XXIId, six; XXIIId, eight. The polls will be open from 3 to 9 p. m. The call was unanimously adopted. Mr. Whitney announced that the Executive Committee had resolved to act with the State Committee in procuring naturalization papers for foreigners entitlecitizenship, and subscriptions for this purpose would be received by the Campaign Committee.

John W. Jacobus moved that the Executive Com-mittee be made the local Campaign Committee, and that the chairman have power to add to the committee. General Joseph C. Jackson offered the following resolutions, which were adopted unanimously, the names of the Republican candidates being greeted with ringing cheers: Resolved, That the Republican County Committee, represeating the Republican voters of the City and County of New-York, unanimously approved the principles enunciated in the platform adopted by the National Republican Cor vention recently held in the city of Chicago, and earnestly recommend its most hearty support by all our fellow-citizens, irrespective of party, who are in favor of American wages for American labor and American markets for American workmen. Resolved. That in our honored candidates for President of the United States, the Honorable Benjamin Harrison of Indiana, and for Vice-President, the Honorable Levi P Morton, of New-York, we recognize gentlemen eminently Morton, of New-York, we recognize gentuence cannot qualified to be the standard bearers of the Republican party, and we therefore pledge them our united and unwav-ering support, believing that their election will advance the highest interests of the entire American people. Samuel H. Randall said that he would heartfly

Samuel H. Randall said that he would heartily second the resolutions. He had been told that day by a gentleman that he had visited a manufactory employing 400 men. Four years ago the superintendent told him their votes were about evenly divided between the two parties. A canvass of the men showed that this year not over five would vote the Democratic ticket. In another manufactory, close by, where 200 men were employed, a canvass showed that only twenty-five would vote for free trade.

The committee then adjourned with cheers for the Republican ticket.

SADNESS AMONG THE COUNTY DEMOCRATS. An uneasy feeling provailed at the regular meeting of the district chairmen of the County Democracy which was held yesterday on the third floor (rear room of the New-Amsterdam Club. The rumor that Secre tary Thomas F. Gilroy, of the Tammany organization had predicted "that Purroy's rebellion was but a small clap of thunder compared to the carthquake which wa ing," had an unsettling effect upon the "leaders, and an air of distrust pervaded the secret meeting There are twenty-four district chairmen, but as Pu roy's chair was vacant Police Justice Power presided.

When the time came to read Mr. Purroy's resignation Judge Power called Mr. Voorhis to the chair The "boss" spoke in an injured tone, it is said, of Purroy and his last fulmination, but did not attack him seriously. He was probably thinking of who was going next. The resignation was referred to the "loyal members" of that part of the XXIVth Assembly and, it was significantly aided "any others that may occur there." Edward Kearney's resignation as a member of the organization was referred to the XXIst Assembly District Committee. His resignation as a member of the Democratic State Committee was forwarded to the letter body. All these restmations, secretary McGee renarked, in giving out the report of the proceedings, will probably be discussed at the meeting of the General Committee at Cooper Union next week.

DEMOCRATIC NEGROES CANNOT AGREE

Indianapolis, July 25 (Special).-J. Millon Turner's national convention of negro voters, in its first day's proceedings, has not only made itself ridiculous, but has become a positive nuisance. When Turner arrived here last night with a few negro Democrats from Washington, he found that the control of the convention had been taken from him. When the convention was called to order this morning, the feeling on both sides was intense. The greatest disorder and confusion prevailed all day. Charles Sheldon, of Evansville, was made emporary chalrman. Nothing else was accomplished until late in the afternoon, when Turner and Peter H clark, of Cincinnati, were nominated for permanent chairman. When a ballot was finally reached, the sec-retary, a friend of Turner, declared that the vote was a tie, although five tellers insisted that Clark had re-ceived 32 votes and Turner 27. Then came a renewal of the bolsterous demonstrations, in which one-half of ceived 32 votes and Turner 27. Then came a renewal of the boisterous demonstrations, in which one-half of the members present was kept busy preventing the other half from coming to blows. The secretary was denounced as a Ear and a robber, and was forced into an ante-room, where an attempt was made by Charles Ogleshy, a Democratic negro in the postal service at Clincinnait, to shoot him. Several mon grabbed Ogleshy and took from him his revolver, while the secretary was harried out of the house and sent away. The row ended in Clark capturing the convention and the presiding officer's gavei was turned over to him.

BUSINESS MEN RECOGNIZE THEIR DUTY. The Down-Town Republican Club met yesterday and decided upon plans for conducting a thorough campaign in the various down-town districts represented. A list is to be made by the captains of ea district of the factories, workshops, etc., and the number of employes in each, and to them will be given literature likely to prove conclusively to them the

The meeting was held at No. 156 Broadway, and although the hour was early three was a good attendance. Colonel W. De L. Boughton was elected president; James R. Skinner, secretary; W. D. A committee on vice-presidents was also selected.

Mr. Murphy recognizes that for all legislation in behalf of temperance the Prohibitionists have sought the Republican party, and feels that he cannot consistently support the Prohibition ticket, and thereby impair the chances of the party which has in the past occupied a friendly attitude toward temperance. Mr. Murphy is authority for the statement that his brother, Edward Murphy, will take the stump in this State in the coming campaign, in behalf of the Republican party.

A COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY NEW-YORK REPUB-LICANS TO PERFECT THE ARRANGEMENTS. The joint conference of the Republican County Committee and the special committee appointed by the Republican Club to arrange for Mr. Blaine's reception was held last night at No. 18 East Twenty-fifth-st, immediately after the meeting in the Grand Opera House adjourned. The rooms THE CANDIDATES AND PLATFORM AND CALLS were erowded with representatives of the various clubs and the regular organization, including General Knapp, of the State Committee. Joseph Pool appeared for the Reception Committee.

There was a general discussion, lasting for an hour or more, but it was finally decided to appoint a sub-committee from the County Committee to act with the club men in arranging the details of the demonstration attending Mr. Blaine's arrival. This committee was accordingly named. Its members are Colonel S. V. R. Cruger, Bernard Biglin, John W. Jacobus, John H. Gunner, Denis Shea and J. Thomas Stearns. As seen as it was appointed the general conference adjourned, leaving the two committees to discuss matters. The first business was the election of a grand marshal. Colonel Cruger was asked to take the position, but he said that it would be impossible for him to do Several other names were then mentioned, including those of General Joseph C. Jackson, Anson J. McCook and others. No decision was reached, but this question will probably be settled to-day, together with the details of the parade.

The members of the committee expres to said bridge, and of the ownership of said bridge, said. Canadian Pacific Railway Company, it is alleged, is en-abled in effect to igners and defeat the operations of the. surprise at the report made by Mr. Pool about the number of clubs that will be represented and the size of the delegations that are coming. The Republican Union League of New-Jersey, for example, said that it would send frem 500 to 1,000 men, and every one of them wants to go down the men, and every one of them wants to go down the Bay, as well as parade at night. Another association, the Union League of New-Haven, sent word that 290 or 300 of its members were coming, and the Eighth Ward Republican Club of New-York declared that it would turn out over 400 strong to welcame home the distinguished leader. Great difficulty is still experienced in securing suitable bonts for the naval display, but the committee decided that enough should be secured, if it had to send to Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other to Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other ports for them.

MR. MORTON AT HEADQUARTERS. HE MAKES A SHORT CALL AND SAYS THAT

EVERYTHING IS GOING WELL. Levi P. Morion came down from Rhinebeck yester-day, and called at the Republican National Headquarters late in the afternoon. Before going to the beadquarters he went to his office down-town to attend to some important affairs connected with his banking establishment. He did not have much time to attend to business, however, for he was besieged with callers. His secretary was kept constantly busy carrying cards his private office. Among those with whom he chatted was ex-Judge John Fitch, who has taken an active part in many campaigns, and is an excellent debater on the tariff question Vice-Chairman Clarkson and Secretary Fassett were talking with a number of visitors at headquarters when Mr. Morton was announced. He was cordially greeted and for half an hour or more chatted pleasantly the officials and a number of other gentlexes, including Congressman Mason, of Illinois; President Bartiett, of the Republican Club; James A. Blanchard, chairman of the Committee of Twenty-five; A. R. Whitney and William Leary. Mr. Morton expressed great satisfaction at the progress of the canvass and with the headquarters selected by the committee. Everything, he thought, looked favorable. Mr. Morton intended to return to Rhinebeck last evening.

Congressman Mason was asked about the prospects to carrying Indiana. "There isn't a doubt about it." he said. "We'll change enough votes in Indianapolis alone to give the State to Harrison, to say nothing of the way in which the old soidiers will vote against Cleveland. Indiana is safely Republican."

GOOD WORK OF THE STATE LEAGUE.

The members of the Executive Committee of the Republican State League met yesterday at the Republican Club house to perfect its organization. Chair-man William H. Williams presided. John S. Smith, an energetic, popular member of the Republican Club of New-York, was elected chalrman of the Sub-Execuerection of the buildings. No sum was mentioned tive Committee, and Dodley T. Phelps, of the West side Lepublican Club, was made assistant secretary of the State League. By special invitation of the of the State League. By special invitation of the State and County Committees, the State League decided to establish the campaign headquarters with those of the County Committee, at No. 15 West Twenty-fittless,, which is near the headquarters of the National League. The most encouraging reports were received from all parts of the State. New clubs are being organized by the dezen, and there is every reason to think that 1,000 will be on the field by September 1.

The principal additions made by the Senate to the bill as it came from the House are provisions for the construction of a steel practice vessel to cost $275,000 and three guideats, or cruisers, not to exceed 1,700 tons in displacement or $500,000 in cost each: the completion of the new naval observatory at a cost not to exceed $400,000; the reconstruction of building No. 7 at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, destroyed by fire in January last, at a cost of $30,000, and the construction of torpedoes adapted to naval warfare and experiments with torpedoes, to cost $100,000 in all. The second day of the tennis tournament given by the Meadow Club began this morning. Long before the playing began the grounds were filled by one of the largest crowds southampton has ever seen at a tennis match. The first contest of the morning was between H. W. Slocum and Coxhall Keene, Slocum won in two sets. In the second intest J. S. Clark won easily from D. S. Campbell. In the afternoon the finals in the singles were played, and nuch to the surprise of every one Clark defeated Slocum in three straight sets. Slocum being out of form to-day, the doubles which have the doubles which have not been played will be finished and Clark will play Taylor for the possession of the cup and the championship of Long Island. A SAMPLE OF DEMOCRATIC ECONOMY.

Washington, July 25 (Special).-The Naval Appro

A notable exception was the provision adopted by the House which appropriated $50,000 for the expenses of a commission of three officials to report as to the most desirable location on or near the Gulf of Mexico for a Navy Yard. This the Committee had struck out altogether, for the reasons that it was not estimated for, that it had not even been recommended by the cern, organized to help its members only, to the exclusion of all others. Mr. Allison tried to get at the reason why so much money was wanted, but could receive no satisfaction from Mr. Morgan.

Mr. lieck came to the rescue of the committee and defended its action in striking out the appropriation, but in a "Pickwickian sense" only, for shortly afterward he voted to let Mr. Morgan have at least $15,000, at which figure, the Senate, after debating the question for nearly three hours, finally passed the term.
